Worrying about money? We are here to help

With food, fuel, heating and housing costs rising many Somerset residents are feeling the pinch. You are not alone

- Are you struggling to afford food and heating, worried about your bills or falling behind with payments?
- Has your income dropped and left you feeling under financial pressure?
- Do you need help to check your welfare benefits entitlement or to deal with a change in personal circumstances?
- Are you interested in practical tips to help you save money?
- Do you want information about local community support (food pantries, warm spaces, companionship, baby banks)

We'll match our help to your needs

Our partnership is focused on helping people through their financial difficulties and supporting communities to help each other

- Claiming missed benefits
- Applying for reduced energy and water bills, social tariffs or grants
- Dealing with the emotional side of managing money and spending
- Accessing community meals, food pantries and other local help
- Getting to grips with unpaid bills and becoming debt free
- Running the home for less (shopping and cooking on a budget, energy saving tips)
- Accessing term time after school activities for eligible families
